

Destination Ibiza 2015 Press Release

Fans of music and motorcycling can once again embark on a unique journey to the 'White Isle' of Ibiza this summer as P&H Motorcycles, Carl Cox and Ducati UK team up for the seventh annual 'Destination Ibiza' trip. Global superstar DJ Carl Cox is a close friend of P&H Motorcycles and the title sponsor for their Ducati TriOptions Cup race team. Playing an integral part in the 'Destination Ibiza' tour since 2009, he will once again be riding with the group throughout the trip. Speaking on this year's edition of this iconic motorcycle tour he said, "I'm really looking forward to the 2015 Destination Ibiza trip. This is our seventh tour and each year it seems to get bigger and better. Riding my Ducati through Europe is a real pleasure, not only are the roads amazing but you get the chance to eat at some amazing restaurants and see some spectacular views. As always, it will be nice to have some quality time away from my busy summer schedule, which will finish at Space for the 'Music is Revolution' closing party on September 22nd."

Led by Carl Cox himself, the group will ride from P&H Motorcycles, the Crawley-based dealership, to Ibiza where they will enjoy the closing party at the iconic Space nightclub before stopping at the Aragon MotoGP. Now entering its seventh year, the one-of-a-kind 'Destination Ibiza' motorcycle tour is set to be bigger and better than ever before.

As one of the largest dealerships of its kind in the UK, P&H Motorcycles will be kindly providing all the essential travel accessories and motorcycle luggage. Their in-house rider training school, Advanced Riding Techniques (ART), will also be offering their qualified instructors as tour guides, ensuring the trip is kept safe as well as fun. Paul Searle, P&H Motorcycles Managing Director said; "It is a great that we can once again provide the essential equipment needed for the Destination Ibiza trip. Each year it continues to go from strength to strength and we are pleased to be able to showcase that we are passionate about all events on two wheels."

Departing from P&H Motorcycles on the 17th September, the group will use a fleet of the latest Ducati motorcycles, provided by Ducati UK. Riding South through the stunning Bordeaux region of France, they will cross the northern edge of the Pyrenees at Pau before heading through the centre of Spain to Denia. There they will embark on the ferry to Ibiza arriving on the evening of the 21st in plenty of time before the legendary Space closing party on 22nd September. Their stay on the island is at the amazing Hotel Es Vive, where they can relax in the Spa or chill out on the roof terrace of Scott's bar before heading out to sample the famous Ibiza nightlife.

On the return journey, the group will stop at the Motorland Circuit at Aragon, Spain for the 14th round of the 2015 MotoGP Championship with the best grandstand seats before riding north through France. Highlights include the N116 Road to Perpignan, the Millau bridge, Staying at a 6th generation family hotel in the Morvan Forest and dining in a Michelin restaurant before returning to the UK at the beginning of October.

Lynn Cosgrove, of Safehouse management insurance sponsors, said, "Destination Ibiza is an idea vehicle for showcasing not only what we do in Ibiza with world class entertainment events, but also gives a lot more exposure to the side of Ibiza that is little seen or promoted."

Alan Jones, Ducati UK Press Manager said, "Carl is a good friend and big fan of Ducati so we are more than happy to be helping him and P&H Motorcycles with their Destination Ibiza trip again. The two have had a great partnership so far this season in our 2015 Ducati TriOptions Cup series, and with the range of Ducati machines we have provided for the trip I'm sure that will continue on their journey to Ibiza."

Notes for Editors: Destination Ibiza was established in 2009 by Steve Manning and Carl Cox to create a unique Motorcycle tour providing a whole new riding experience for people who are passionate about Motorcycling & music. Steve has been a professional instructor for 20 years & Carl is a world renowned DJ and has been in the music industry for over 30. They both began riding motorcycles in the early eighties and still gain huge enjoyment from riding today, so bringing the two together has created the perfect trip for fans of both.
